PROGRAM IMPLEMENTATION PROCESS IN RURAL AREAS

Research on various topics:

- How many students are interested in computer and IT sector?
- What is the condition of English education?
- How many students regularly attend the school?
- Reason Behind irregularities of student in the class
- Economic condition of the family
- How the teachers motivate the students?
- How good the teachers present their subject?
- Controlling mechanism of the teachers
- Teachers and parents meeting
- Parents view towards education, schools, teachers and student
- Environment of school
- Availability of course books
- Availability of stationery materials like pen, pencils, instrument boxes, copies, ink and so on.

Meeting for promotion of school, education, students and community

- Meeting with school management
- Meeting with school teacher
- Meeting with respective DEO's
- Meeting with Parents

Interaction Program

- Interaction Program with society, community, students and related authorized bodies.

Program modules

Program shall be conducted as follows:

1st Phase

- Motivation to students in the field of interest and the importance of education
- Motivation to students and parents in the field of IT

2nd Phase

- Basic English Language Training so that they can understand general points of computer and it also helps them to achieve their best in English Paper Exam

3rd Phase

- Make understand the use of computer in our daily life
- How we can cash the computer education

4th Phase

- Meeting with DEO's, school management regarding the enhancement of the education and education system

5th Phase

- Organizing the micro crediting program

6th Phase

- Teaching the basic computer package

7th Phase

- Follow up program
- Financial donation approaches regarding the enhancement of education of rural areas
- Equipment like computer, generators etc approaches

8th Phase

- Implementation of the project

9th Phase

- Follow up and feedback program and implementing other economic, social uplift program whereas necessary.

10th Phase

- Final report, Certification and motivational activities

Note: In every phase some motivational documentary show shall be demonstrated for the better implementation of the program and to create interest for the participant.